

- ▶ Ongoing educational improvement for your Board and Executive
- ▶ Helps meet governance and regulatory needs
- ▶ Ensures technology trends factor into business decisions

Considerations:

- Designed for experienced Board members and executive
 - Annual review of important industry trends affecting technology in the financial services sector.
 - Ensures your credit union directors are meeting regulatory requirements for ongoing technology training.
-

Keep your board and executive members educated!

Keep your directors up to date on technology trends, risk and security, and other relevant technology items that should be top of mind for any credit union.

This annual training session will outline issues, trends, risks, and upcoming technologies that are of interest to the Canadian credit union marketplace.

A half day, on site training session for your board will be an invaluable part of your annual planning process. Book early!

Relevant Topics

- Cyber security
- Risk
- Regtech
- Fintech Proliferation
- Technology Trends

Half Day Session

On site presentation of key technology topics that are relevant to the credit union community.